A little bit of back story...

Discover the rich history behind our establishment as we take you on a journey through time. In 1834, Felix McGowran, a visionary, rented premises next to Raheny House and embarked on a venture as a "Jaunting Car, Cart, & Car Maker." His entrepreneurial spirit led to a Sawmill & Timber Yard at the junction of Howth Road & Watermill Road, in the shadow of Rathmore House. In 1843, he opened the iconic "Manhattan Public House," a legacy that continued through the 20th century. Over the years, the Manhattan had various proprietors, each contributing to its unique character – from Delaney, Dwyer, Wheelan, Maguire, to, most recently, Curtis & Farrelly. In 1991, the premises underwent expansion and refurbishment, evolving into "The Station House." In 2013, it transformed into "The Cock & Bull Raheny." Now, as we return to our roots as "The Manhattan," we honor the historic name that has graced this location for 170 years. Join us in celebrating this storied past & become a part of the legacy. We aim to make our patrons proud to have a local establishment with such a rich and enduring history.

Welcome to The Manhattan, where tradition meets modernity in a seamless blend of flavors and heritage.
